End of the Debate!

The debate is over. The evidence is in and the conclusions are undeniable: Obama is so totally incompetent as a political leader, as a business leader or as a leader of anything, let alone a ruler, that he therefore does not qualify to be our God! His first job as President is to defend and protect the Constitution of the United States not destroy it. He knows he has no constitutional authority to seize private businesses, a la The German National Socialist Party model, or to seize banks, or to impose expensive mandated taxation on the citizens under the guise of health care and cap and trade legislation. He has no authority under the Constitution to spend tax payer money on child development programs disguised as federal education schemes the sole purpose of which is to propagandize school age children turning them into modern socialist thinking supporters of big government.

His aim is to purposefully destroy America and all it stands for. To accomplish this the Progressives must first capture our children. They have had a fifty year head start and have come a long way already in accomplishing that goal. Obama's recent request for an additional $100 billion dollars for education is nothing more than a ruse to use taxpayer funds to recruit high-schoolers into his version of the Hitler Youth of long, long ago. Like all fascists leaders, Obama needs to be a "God" therefore his youth programs, like Organizing for America, is nothing more than a clever scheme to create an Obama Cult. In some schools, like an 11th grade class in Massillon, Ohio, a teacher actually passed out a sign-up sheet, with Obama's logo, asking them to become Obama interns in Organizing for America. Students with conservative leanings, determined by questionnaires, will not be asked to participate.

The ten page curriculum for the training, an intensive nine week course, centers on the Saul Alinsky book Rules for Radicals, and Left wing activist Rinku Sen's, Stir It Up: Lessons from Community Organizing and Advocacy and parts of Obama's own book Dreams From My Father. The group's mission statement is simple: "Organizing for America, the successor organization to Obama for America, is building on the movement that elected President Obama by empowering students across the country to help us bring about our agenda of change." The goal is to build a community among the interns so they will become the leaders of Organizing for America. They will become the alumni and will thereafter be eligible for jobs with the Senior Corps, AmeriCorps and Learn and Serve America.

It is our good fortune that enough alert Americans, still educated in the old school of American history, humanities and civics, have turned out in outrage at this socialist grab by the Progressives and focused on defeating their nefarious schemes to socialize America forever. The TEA Parties especially have brought about enough pressure that it appears hopeful that the wheels on Obama's bus may actually be coming off. Never in my life have I ever wished more for the failure of our President, now even being abandoned by members of his own party.

To deny America's greatness and its exceptionalism is an act of sedition, but sedition isn't a crime. To destroy the Constitution is an act of treason and my right to say so, is protected by the first Amendment. Yes, the debate is over. Obama must be a one term president and the fear he has brought to Americans must always be held up as an example of the dangers we constantly face, from the left of our great nation. We must get our schools back. Go get 'em! (09 Mar 10)
